The NorthStar Conference Nordic Ski Meet was held on the Rainbow Resort ski trails Tuesday, as four boys' and girls' teams competed on some fresh snow.

Bemidji skiers swept the boys' and girls' 6km classic race events, as Waylon Manske and Jill Smith won their respective races.

Manske finished with a time of 19:29, which was one second ahead of teammate Matt Nistler's 19:30.

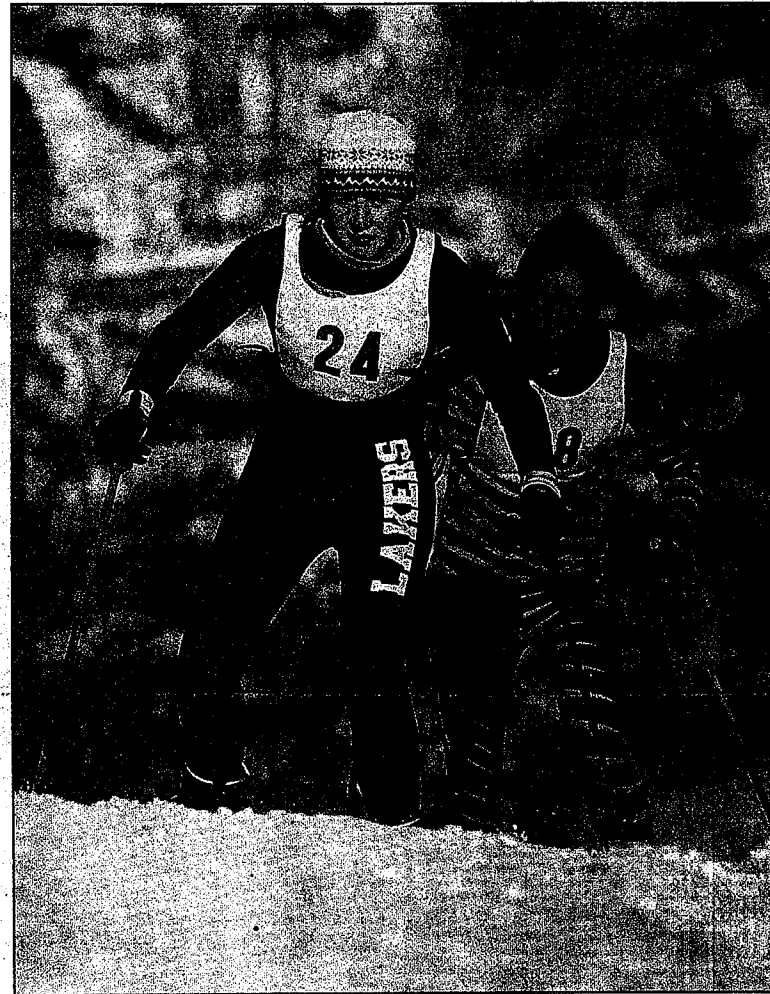

Smith's lead was a bit more comfortable, as she won the girls' event with a mark of 23:16, with teammate Maggie Manske taking second with a time of 23:45.

For the Detroit Lakes boys, Ben Strege was the first in at ninth with a time of 22:43. Dylan Ramstad-Skoyles was 11th at 22:56.

Other DL finishers were Jake Richards in 14th at 24:10 and Jeremy Quittschreiber in 19th at 28:53. There were a total of 22 skiers in the boys' race.

DL's Emma Johnson and Karena King finished in the No. 14-15 spots, respectively, with times of 29:48 and 32:25. Polly Olson rounded out the

There were 21 skiers in the girls' 6km event.

The Section 8 meet is scheduled for Feb. 7, at Camp Ripley. But the location and date could change if a lack of snow conditions persist to that date.
